HEADS OF COLLEGES CALLED TO AID NEW PLAN FOR U.S. ARMY

Will Be Asked to Train Junior Officers to Make Quota of 50,000 for War Emergency.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Presidents of nineteen colleges and universities have been called in conference by the War Department preparatory to establishment of systematic methods for training reserve officers for the United States Army in those institutions. They will meet at the Army War College here Tuesday, Oct. 17, for discussion with the Army General Staff of military courses to be organized in institutions desiring to take advantage of provisions of the Army Reorganization Law.

It has been estimated that the army must maintain a corps of 50,000 partially trained junior officers to facilitate organization of an adequate military force should the nation have war with a power capable of attempting invasion. The main source of supply for these officers would be institutions with approved military courses, where military training under army officers is part of a student's work.

National Guard organizations composed entirely of college students have been mustered out of the Federal service so those men may compose the first increment of reserve officers to be drawn under the new plan.

Officials expected to attend the conference include Dr. J. E. Roycroft, Princeton; A. Lawrence Lowell, Harvard; Arthur T. Hadley, Yale; John H. Finley, University of California; J. G. Schurman, Cornell University; Edmund J. James, University of Illinois; J. H. Kirkland, Vanderbilt University; A. C. Humphries, Stevens Institute of Technology; H. A. Garfield, Williams College; Rev. Edward A. Pace, Catholic University of America; Henry B. Drinker, Lehigh University; W. O. Thompson, Ohio State University; Brown Ayres, University of Tennessee; W. M. Riggs, Clemson Agricultural College, South Carolina; George E. Went, University of Minnesota; Dr. Greenview Clark, Loyd Derby and De Lancey K. Jay, officials of the Military Training Camps Association of the United States, also will attend.

FOUND 'POOL ROOM' IN CENTRAL PARK THICKET

Detectives Arrest Two Men There on Charge of Taking Bets on the Horse Races.

That the thickets of upper Central Park furnished cover for a betting ring was revealed to-day when Joseph Gordon of No. 53 West One Hundred and Twelfth Street and Henry Duke of No. 218 West Eleventh Street were held in $1,500 bail each in the West Side Court on a charge of bookmaking.

Between thirty and forty men were busy making bets when the gambling retreat, near One Hundred and Tenth Street, was discovered. Detectives Turk and Topinka, who were on the scene, heard some one calling out names of racing favorites and quoting odds. Stepping through the bushes, the detectives came upon the crowd. The detectives say that the two men they arrested had a racing chart and were receiving messengers' reports of races. When they seized Gordon, Duke and the chart the other fled.

GAFFNEY MAKES DENIAL.

Declares World Wrong in Stating He Got Hughes Fund in Germany.

The World on Tuesday published as part of the wireless despatch sent by Herbert Bayard Swope from the Frederick VIII, a statement that it is a matter of record that pretended American organizations in Germany have raised money for propaganda work for Hughes in America, and that the report is circulated in Berlin that St. John Gaffney, former Consul General at Munich, took with him money to use in supporting Hughes among the American Irish and Catholics. Regarding this statement, Mr. Gaffney said yesterday:

"I never knew or heard of an American organization in Germany that raised money for propaganda work for Hughes in this country. I was never asked to bring nor did I bring money from Germany for that or any other political propaganda work in the United States."

"The statements of The World in regard to myself are deliberate and premeditated lies, and I have referred the publication to my lawyers for an opinion as to whether they are libelous."

Doctor Says Nuxated Iron Will Increase Strength of Delicate People 200% in Ten Days

In many instances—Persons have suffered untold misery for years desiring for nervous weakness, stomach, liver or kidney disease or some other ailment when their real trouble was lack of iron in the blood. —How to tell.

In a recent discourse Dr. E. Bauer, a specialist who has studied both in this country and Europe, said: If you were to make an actual blood test on all people who are ill you would probably be greatly astonished at the exceedingly large number who lack iron and who are ill for no other reason than the lack of iron. The moment iron is supplied all their multitude of dangerous symptoms disappear. Without iron the blood at once loses the power to change food into living tissue and therefore nothing you eat does you any good; you don't get the strength out of it. Your food merely passes through your system like cinders through a mill with the rollers so wide apart that the mill can't grind. As a result of this continuous blood and nerve starvation, people become generally weakened, nervous and run down and frequently develop all sorts of conditions. One is too thin, another is burdened with unusual weight, some are weak they can hardly walk; some think they have dyspepsia, kidney or liver trouble; some can't sleep at night, others are sleepy and tired all day; some fussy and irritable; some skinny and bloodless, but all lack the power of endurance. In such cases, it is worse than foolishness to take stimulating medicines or narcotic drugs, which only whet your fastidious vital powers for the moment, maybe at the expense of your life later on. No matter what any one tells you, if you are not strong and well you owe it to yourself to make the following test. See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how you feel. You will find that you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous run down people who were ailing all the time double, and even triple, their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of their symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form, and this, when they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. You can talk as you please about all the various forms of iron, but the fact is that the old form of inorganic iron, the various salts of iron, iron acetate, etc., never penetrates people's teeth, upset their stomachs, were not assimilated and for that reason they frequently did more harm than good. But with the discovery of the new form of organic iron, the nuxated iron, we were not assimilated and for that reason they frequently did more harm than good. But with the discovery of the new form of organic iron, the nuxated iron, we were not assimilated and for that reason they frequently did more harm than good.

NOTE: The manufacture of Nuxated Iron has been standardized in its production. They have been standardized in its production. They have been standardized in its production.
